

FLORIDA FASHION and ESSENTIALS

PAGES
24, 25, 26, 27

BY KEVIN LANE

Nova Law Student Stephanie Herrmann's Awarded Scholarship From Law Firm Kaye Bender Rembaum

Stephanie Herrmann's academic achievements, community service and an essay about a common issue facing community associations today and how she would counsel an association to resolve it, were recognized by South Florida community association law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum, which awarded her a $2,500 scholarship.

"I am humbled and grateful to have this scholarship," said Herrmann, a second year law student at the Shepard Broad Law Center at Nova Southeastern University. "This will go a long way in helping me with the expenses associated with law school. It's great that Kaye Bender Rembaum gives back like this. I look forward to giving back in the community after I graduate."

"We believe it is important to recognize and support the legal profession's future leaders," said Robert

L. Kaye, Esq., managing member of Kaye Bender Rembaum with offices in Pompano Beach and Palm Beach County. "We received several impressive scholarship applications, but Stephanie's stood out from the rest. We congratulate her on a job well done." This marks the fifth year Kaye Bender Rembaum has awarded the scholarship to a deserving NSU law student.

According to Jon Garon, dean of the Shepard Broad Law Center, contributions from community partners like Kaye Bender

Robert Kaye, Michael Bender, Stephanie Herrmann, and Jon Garon

Rembaum, contribute to the continued success of NSU law students.

For more information, visit www.KBRLegal.com or call (954) 928-0680.