

September 26, 2016

Home > Talk Of The Town > Lauren Schwarzfeld Joins Kaye Bender Rembaum

Lauren Schwarzfeld Joins Kaye Bender Rembaum

Lauren Schwarzfeld, Esq. has joined leading Florida community association law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum.

As an associate in the firm's Pompano Beach office, Schwarzfeld is responsible for assisting clients in general civil litigation, handling all aspects of the diverse litigation practice of the firm.

"Lauren's litigation experience and her commitment for delivering exceptional service to clients make her a valuable addition to our Firm," said Michael Bender, Esq., firm member of Kaye Bender Rembaum.

Schwarzfeld received a Bachelor of Science in public relations from the University of Florida and a Juris Doctor from the Shepard Broad Law Center at Nova Southeastern University. While at Nova Southeastern, Schwarzfeld served as president of the Nova Trial Association and competed in trial competitions around the country. She began her career representing clients in employment discrimination cases and also handled mortgage foreclosure matters for lenders.

