

Newsmakers: People in Palm Beach County business, non-profits

NATION-WORLD

By Wendi Ladika - Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Posted: 12:00 a.m. Sunday, March 12, 2017

LEGAL

The law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum has announced that a new firm member and senior associate have joined the firm's office in Palm Beach Gardens. Peter C. Mollengarden joins as a firm member and was previously a shareholder of Rosenbaum Mollengarden and leader of its community association law practice. He has represented community associations and country club communities in South Florida since 1992. Prior to that, he was an attorney in the Washington D.C. metro area representing developers and preparing condominium and homeowners association documents. Mollengarden is a frequent guest speaker and lecturer on the topic of association law. He co-hosts radio talk show "Condo Solutions," which airs weekly on 1450 AM in Stuart. Mollengarden received a Bachelor of Arts with distinction from the University of Virginia and his Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law.

Allison L. Hertz joins as a senior associate and was previously with Rosenbaum Mollengarden's community association law practice. Hertz brings 10 years of experience in counseling condominium, homeowner and cooperative associations on issues of importance including day-to-day operational issues, such as covenant enforcement, covenant preservation and revitalization, contracts, amendments to governing documents and collection and foreclosure issues. Hertz received a Bachelor of Arts from Rollins College and a Juris Doctor from Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad Law Center.

Both Mollengarden and Hertz are members of the South Florida Chapter of Building Managers International and the Gold Coast Chapter of the Community Association Institute.