

NOVEMBER 20, 2017

By Junette Reyes · Contact Reporter
South Florida Sun-Sentinel

Seminar series offers chance to 'Ask the Attorneys'

An "Ask the Attorneys" seminar series kicked off in Tamarac this month.

In its 10th consecutive season, the series is hosted by the full-service commercial law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum. The law firm represents more than 1,000 community associations throughout Florida.

"We hold these open forum seminars to share topical, timely information to help board members and property managers run their associations effectively, efficiently and financially responsibly," said Robert Kaye, manager of Kaye Bender Rembaum.

The free seminars are led by Kaye and Michael Bender, during which new legislation and industry hot topics are discussed.

The pair also answer community association-related questions from board members, as well as property managers of condominium, homeowner, and cooperative associations.

One of the next scheduled events in the series will take place next year on Jan. 9 from 6:45 to 8:30 p.m. at the Village Civic Center in Sunrise, located on 6800 Sunset Strip. Attendees are encouraged to bring topics for discussion. Refreshments will be served.

Individuals interested in attending can RSVP by emailing KBRLegalSeminar@piersongrant.com or calling 954-776-1999, ext. 242.