SERVING SUNRISE, PLANTATION, LAUDERHILL, TAMARAC, NORTH LAUDERDALE AND LAUDERDALE LAKES

BUSINESS

Seminar offers chance to 'Ask the Attorney'

By Junette Reyes Staff writer

An "Ask the Attorneys" seminar series kicked off in Tamarac this month.

season, the series is hosted Rembaum. by the full-service commercommunity associations discussed. throughout Florida.

rum seminars to share topi-cal, timely information to bers, as well as property nar@piersongrant.com associations effectively, effi- associations. ciently and financially responsibly," said Robert Kaye,

The next seminar will take place Jan. 9 at the Village Civic Center in Sunrise.

The free seminars are led cial law firm Kaye Bender by Kaye and Michael Bender, Rembaum. The law firm during which new legislation Sunset Strip. Attendees represents more than 1,000 and industry hot topics are are encouraged to bring

The pair also answer com- freshments will be served. "We hold these open fo- munity association-related help board members and managers of condominium, or calling 954-776-1999, property managers run their homeowner, and cooperative

One of the next scheduled junreyes@sunevents in the series will take

In its 10th consecutive manager of Kaye Bender place next year on Jan. 9 from 6:45 to 8:30 p.m. at the Village Civic Center in Sunrise, located on 6800 topics for discussion. Re-

> RSVP by emailing ext. 242.

sentinel.com

