Law firm holds 10th season of 'Ask the Attorneys' seminar series

Law firm Kaye Bender Rembaum is heading to Boca Raton this month during its 10th season of free community association "Ask the Attorneys" seminars.

The seminar series will be visiting Sugar Sand Park in Boca Raton on March 6 at 6:45 p.m.

The free "Ask the Attorneys" seminars are led by Robert L. Kaye, Esq. and Michael S. Bender, Esq. who discuss new legislation, industry hot topics and answer community association-related questions from board members and property managers of condominium, homeowner and cooperative associations.

"We hold these open forum seminars to share topical, timely information to help board members and property managers run their associations effectively, efficiently and financially responsibly," said Kaye, Manager of Kaye Bender Rembaum. "There are often lively conversations as the audience shares experiences and ask questions. What we provide is valuable insights across the entire range of issues that community associations face on a daily basis."

Refreshments will be served. Interested attendees should RSVP to KBRLegalSeminar@piersongrant.com or call 954-776-1999, ext. 242. Attendees are encouraged to bring topics for discussion.
